All the lanterns of the Juno were again extinguished and the men sent quietly to their quarters, with the strictest injunctions not to make a sound or fire a gun until ordered under pain of death. Every other preparation had long since been made for action, so the officers slipped on their boarding caps, loosened their swords in their sheaths and looked to the priming of their pistols: then, receiving their final commands, departed quietly to their several stations—Simpson, now occupying the position of first lieutenant vacated by Seymour, having charge of the batteries, and Wallingford, on deck with the captain, in command of the sail trimmers, who were clustered about the masts, the sloop being still heavily manned.

"Man the starboard battery," said the captain in a low but distinct voice. "Men, we've got our work cut out for us tonight. No cheering until the first shot is fired, and no firing till I give the order, and then, all together, give it to them. Do you understand?"

A chorus of subdued "Aye, ayes," indicated that the orders were heard. "Mr. Wallingford, do you stand ready to back the main topsail when she is alongside, though if she attempts to pass in front of us we'll up helm and take her on the port side. Two of you afterwards go below and bring up the captain of the Mellish. Lively! We shall soon have the sloop down on us."

In a few moments the unfortunate British skipper was standing on the poop deck beside Captain Jones.

"Now, my man, you are the master of the Mellish, are you not?"

"I was a few moments ago," replied the man sullenly.

"Well, you are to stand right here and answer hails just as I tell you. Do you understand?"

"Yes."

"Williams, you and another hold him, and if he hesitates to answer, or answers other than I tell him, blow his brains out. Now we have nothing to do but wait. Keep her a good full at the helm there."

"Aye, aye, sir!" replied the veteran quartermaster, stationed at the con. Meanwhile the Juno had come abreast of the vessel next ahead of the Ranger, and the conversation which followed was as plainly audible in the latter ship as had been the beating to quarters just after she wore.

"Providence almighty!" came from the Juno. "What is the matter? What are you burning blue lights for?"

"Nothing is the matter with us, sir, but we heard pistol shots and cries on the Mellish astern and thought we saw two ships instead of one. It's so beastly black tonight we couldn't make out anything very well."

"All right; better keep off a little, out of the way. I will run down and see what's wrong."

The present course of the Juno would have brought her across the bows of the Ranger, but the ships were nearing so rapidly that a collision would have resulted, so the Juno was kept away a little and soon ran down on the lee bow of the Ranger. The two ships were thus placed side by side, the Ranger on the port tack having the their battles ended. One or two seriously wounded men were lying groaning by the hatchway, waiting their turn to be carried below to the cockpit to be committed to the rough surgery of the period, while the fleet footed powder boys were running to and fro from the different guns with their charges, leaping over the wounded and dying with indifference. The continuous roar of the artillery, for the guns were served with that steady, rapid precision for which the American seamen soon became famous, the crackling of musketry from the men in the tops, with the yells and cheers and curses and groans of the maddened men, completed a scene which suggested a bit of hell.

"This is warm work, Wallingford," said the captain coolly, though his eyes were sparkling with excitement. "Do we gain any advantage?"

"I think so. Their fire does not seem to be so heavy. Does it not slacken a little, sir?"

"Aye, I think so too. I trust our sticks hold."

"I have not had any serious damage reported so far, sir."

"Well, we must end it soon, or that frigate will be down on us—in half an hour at most, I should say. Ha! What was that?" he said as a loud crash from the Juno interrupted him.

"Their main topmast's gone by the board, burrah!" shouted Wallingford,

"Do you surrender?"

looking toward the ship after springing on the rail, from whence a moment later he fell back dead, with a bullet in his breast.

"Poor fellow!" murmured Jones and then called out: "Give it to them, lads! They have lost their main topmast!" A cheer was the answer. But the matter must be ended at once.

"Johnson," said Jones to the young midshipman by his side, "run forward and have the main yard hauled. Give her a good full, quartermaster," he said to the veteran seaman at the helm and then watched the water over the side to see when she gathered headway through it. "Now! Hard up with the helm! Flatten in the head sheets! Round in the weather braces! Cease firing and load all!"

The ship gathered way, forged ahead slowly, fell off when the helm was put up and in a trice was standing across the stern of the Juno, which endeavored to meet the maneuver as soon as it was seen; but, owing to the loss of the jib and main topmast and the fouling of the gear, she did not answer the helm rapidly enough to escape the threatening danger.

"Stand by to take her! Ready! Fire! Stand by to board!"

The effect of this raking broadside delivered at short range was awful. The whole stern of the Juno was beaten in, and the deadly projectiles had free range the full length of the devoted ship, which reeled and trembled under the terrible shock. A moment of silence followed, broken by shrieks and groans and a few feeble cheers from some undaunted spirits. Then, the Ranger still falling off, a rank sheer of the helm brought her beam against the stern of the Juno, when eager hands hoisted the grapples which bound the two ships together.

"Away, boarders!"

"Away, boarders!"

SOUND PLATFORM

Republicans In National Convention Reaffirm Traditional Principles.

SECOND DAY'S DOINGS

A Great Crowd Gathered at the Coliseum Today to Hear Speaker Cannon and the Platform.

An Ovation Given Senator Fairbanks Whose Nomination Is Now Contested.

Chicago, June 22.—The second day's session of the Republican national convention witnessed the reaffirmation of the party's traditional policies in a platform which for the main part had been in hand weeks before it came before the resolutions committee for formal ratification. The big feature of the day was the address of Permanent Chairman Joseph G. Cannon of Illinois, who, as speaker of the house of representatives, has taken a strong place in the national interest.

The continued lack of public interest in the convention was evidenced by the large number of spectators' seats vacant. Seats at former Republican conventions usually brought a premium. Today speculators offered them, but there were few takers, and as the hour approached for the convention to assemble they sold them for a song. The wilderness of vacant seats was in the gallery and on the mezzanine floor, where not more than two-thirds of the chairs were occupied. The first floor was well filled.

Without a disturbing element to impede smooth operation, the day's program was carried out like clockwork. Not a jarring sound was heard, not a false step taken. It was an assembly of non-combative delegates which carried into effect, without the thunderous demonstration usually attendant upon political conventions, a purpose that had been clearly defined. An organization was perfected at the first day's session preparatory to the adoption of a platform and the making of nominations in the succeeding days of the convention, and the adoption of the platform was perfunctory. From the quiet yet unmistakable enthusiasm provoked by Senator Fairbanks' arrival at the Coliseum, his nomination for vice president is but little less assured than the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt for president.

Today's session was opened with prayer by Rev. Thomas E. Cox. The report of the committee on resolutions was then presented by Senator Henry C. Lodge and adopted. The party's platform includes a plank strongly commending the established Republican policy on the tariff and presents in terse language the necessity for maintaining the protective policy in the interest of American labor and American industries. Added to this is a declaration committing the party to a readjustment of the schedules if found to be desirable in the future. There is also a mild declaration on the subject of reciprocity and a pronouncement against trusts, but with a reservation in the interest of "established, legitimate industries." In this connection it congratulates the party upon the legislation on the trust question which has been secured since Mr. Roosevelt became president. There are also planks dealing with the isthmian canal and the policy of the United States toward Cuba, upon which the Republican party is felicitated. It also contains a declaration in favor of encouraging American shipping.

The tariff plank declares for the "cardinal principles of protection" and further that the rate of duty should be the difference between the cost of production in the United States and abroad. The rates of duty should be so changed that the public interest demands it. All such changes should be made by the Republican party.

The report of the committee on permanent organization was then heard and Permanent Chairman Cannon was escorted to the chair. His address received the closest attention throughout and was liberally punctuated with applause.

Chairman Cannon introduced his address with the statement that "the Republican party was born with the declaration that slavery was sectional or local, and that freedom was national.

It has ever been a national party, its policies benefiting every section and every man in the republic. It made its first successful contest for power in 1860 with Abraham Lincoln as its standard bearer. Secession followed. The war for the maintenance of the Union was waged for four years, and such a contest of arms the world had never seen before and perhaps never will see again. In the end slavery was abolished and freedom became universal within the borders of the republic. With a bankrupt treasury and bankrupt credit, the party under the lead of Lincoln, went back to the policy of Washington and wrote upon the statute books the revenue laws imposing duties on imports that would produce revenue and at the same time protect every citizen of the United States in diversifying the industries of the republic. It was a contest for free men and for free labor everywhere within our borders. The policy of protection has been the shibboleth of the Republican party from that day to this. Under this policy, from an insignificant manufacturing country in 1860, by leaps and bounds, while we still remained first in agriculture among the nations of the earth, we have become more than first in manufactures. More than one-third of all the manufactured products of the whole earth is produced by American capital, by American labor, which works shorter hours than any people on earth, and has more steady employment than any people on earth, and on the average receives, conservatively stated, one and three-fourths dollars compensation where similar labor elsewhere receives but one dollar.

"We enter the coming campaign with the record of the Republican party, under the leadership of Theodore Roosevelt, feeling that we have made progress and marked progress along the line of law and order, contemporary with the development of our material interests. In addition to this, and as a further illustration of the condition of the country, let me call your attention to the fact that the people of the United States now have far greater wealth than the people of any other country on earth. Capital is abundant; interest rates are decreasing and capital seeks investment. And while the law prohibits 'unlawful combinations, great blocks of competitive private capital have been and are being invested in all the industries of the country. It can easily be foreseen that when a legitimate plant comes into competition with a plant that is capitalized for two or three times its value, the over-capitalized plant will go to the wall. It is an open secret that within the last two years the shrinkage from over-capitalization has been many, many hundreds of millions of dollars. The property is all there now, as it was two years ago; but the wind and the water and the gas have disappeared, greatly to the advantage of the people of the country. And yet on the average, I say again, our people are better employed and at a better wage, and have been for the last twelve months, than ever before. And notwithstanding this great shrinkage of fictitious values, the millions of people throughout the country who live in the sweat of their faces, do not know thereof and are not affected thereby.

"Let us make our nominations in order and appeal to the people of the country for a renewal of power to the Republican party, standing by our policies, ready to legislate where legislation would be productive of more good than evil from the economic standpoint, but refusing to legislate and lose the substance of success in a vain effort to secure the shadow that abideth not, and satisfieth not either the intellectual nor material existence."

Following the chairman's address the report of the committee on rules was adopted and the naming by state delegations of the members of the new national committee was ratified. The new committee is as follows: Alabama, Charles H. Scott; California, George A. Knight; Connecticut, Chas. F. Brooks; Delaware, J. Edward Adkins; Florida, J. N. Coombs; Georgia, Judson W. Lyons; Idaho, Weldon B. Hayburn; Illinois, Frank O. Lowden; Indiana, Harry S. New; Iowa, Ernest E. Hart; Kansas, David W. Mulvane; Kentucky, John W. Yerkes; Maine, John F. Hill; Massachusetts, W. Murray Crane; Michigan, John W. Blodgett; Minnesota, Frank B. Kellogg; Mississippi, L. B. Moreley; Missouri, Thomas J. Atkins; Montana, John B. Walte; Nebraska, Charles H. Morrill; Nevada, P. L. Flanagan; New Hampshire, Frank T. Streeter; New Jersey, Franklin Murphy; New York, William L. Ward; North Dakota, Alexander McKenzie; Ohio, Myr n. T. Herrick; Oregon, Charles H. Carey; South Dakota, J. M. Greene; Tennessee, W. P. Brownlow; Texas, Cecil A. Lyons; Utah, C. E. Loose; Virginia, G. E. Bowden; Washington, Levi Ankeny; West Virginia, N. B. Scott; Wisconsin, Henry C. Payne; Wyoming, George E. Paxton; Alaska, John S. Held; Indian Territory, P. L. Soper; New Mexico, Solomon Luna; Oklahoma, C. M. Cade; Hawaii, Alexander G. M. Robertson.

The Fairbanks boom for the vice presidency flourished unrestrained during the convention proceedings. Its impetus was gained when the Indiana delegation entered the Coliseum and led by the two senators, Mr. Fairbanks and Mr. Beveridge, proceeded down the aisle to their seats near the stage. The ovation given Senator Fairbanks was greater than was received by any of his distinguished colleagues. The proceedings afforded no opportunity for the advancement of other candidacies. No mention was made of the names of favorite sons whose ambitions are not taken seriously beyond the boundaries of their own states. The applause for Senator Fairbanks appeared to be general.

HOW IT WAS DONE YOU MUST EAT,

Admiral Skrydloff Reports
On Sinking of Japanese Transports.

IT WAS ALL ONE WAY

The Transports Powerless to Help Themselves Were at the Mercy of the Warships.In One Instance the Troops Would Not Leave Transport and Went Down With It.

St. Petersburg, June 22.—Official details of the recent cruise of the Vladivostok squadron clears up some of the conflicting reports of the resultant engagement. Regarding the sinking of the Izumi, the Sado and the Hitachi, Admiral Skrydloff reports: "In spite of repeated orders to stop the Izumi refused to do so until she had been struck by several shells. She then stopped and men began to jump overboard. The Gromobol then signalled for those on board to quit the ship, which was done, the crew leaving in two boats. These, together with those who had jumped overboard and who were picked up by boats from the cruiser, were received on board the Gromobol. The Izumi, which was of 3,000 tons, was then sunk by our guns."

"After the sinking of the transport two more steamers were sighted by the Gromobol, and they were chased. They proved to be the transports Sado and Hitachi, each of 6,000 tons. In the former in addition to military stores, were men of the telegraph corps and twelve officers and also pontooners. On the Hitachi were 1,000 troops besides military stores. The Russia was ordered to capture the Sado and the Gromobol the Hitachi, which tried to escape."

"After several shots had been fired warning the Hitachi to stop, without effect, our guns opened fire and she stopped. Those on board, however, paid no attention to the signal to abandon the ship, and after more shots had been fired they commenced to lower boats. The transport settled down very slowly and consequently the Gromobol was ordered to expedite the sinking of her, which was soon accomplished."

"The Sado stopped after several shots had been fired across her bows, and in accordance with our signals, her boats, which were fairly numerous were lowered. Some of the boats were precipitately lowered and several capsized. The Rurik was ordered to pick up the officers, soldiers and crew, but it was only possible to capture four foreigners engaged in the transport and twenty-five officers. The other troops did not leave the transport and the Rurik was then ordered to torpedo and sink her. The transport not sinking at the first torpedo, another was fired, which sank her. Our squadron then, considering the matter ended and in view also of the growing darkness, proceeded on the cruise, a Japanese cruiser watching all the time."

Killing Was Unwarranted.

Washington, June 22.—Minister Conger has cabled the state department that Consul Miller, after a thorough investigation of the facts connected with the killing of the American war correspondent Etzel by Chinese soldiers on the junk off New Chwang, has made a report stating that the killing was unwarranted and without provocation. Mr. Conger will forward the details by mail and in due course the state department will bring the subject to the attention of the Chinese government.

Vladivostok Squadron Scores.

Vladivostok, June 22.—A large Japanese schooner, laden with provisions, has been brought into port. Russian torpedo boats have destroyed a number of other Japanese sailing craft loaded with food, along the coast of Japan.

Kansas City Platform Beaten.

Fargo, N. D., June 22.—After two hours of wrangling over an amendment to the report of the resolutions committee to endorse the Kansas City platform, the North Dakota state Democratic convention voted down the amendment and will send an uninstructed delegation to the St. Louis convention.

TERSE TELEGRAMS

The Comptroller of the Currency has received word of the failure of a National bank at Medina, N. Y.

The next meeting of the National League of Republican Clubs will be held in Indianapolis October 2 and 3.

President Roosevelt has formally invited Paul Morton to become a member of his official family as secretary of the navy.

There are no further developments at Tangier regarding the steps to be taken to bring about the release of Pedicaris and Varley.

Col. Edwin Emerson, jr., one of the New York World's correspondents in the East is reported to have been shot by Russians who took him for a spy.

Mrs. Avenue Orr, Gordon Piper, Florence Crane and Roy Mitchell, all of Negaunee, Mich., were drowned in Teal Lake, a squall capsizing the boat.

The Washington Park race meeting has been abandoned. This move followed the prohibition by the Chicago authorities of bookmaking at the track.

The Portland mine, at Victor, Colo., which was closed by the military because it gave employment to union men, has been opened with a small non-union force.

Major Gen. Wade, now commanding the Philippine division, probably will relieve Major Gen. Corbin of command of the Atlantic division in October next, when Gen. Corbin goes to the Philippines.

AN AWFUL TOTAL

List of Victims of the Slocum Disaster Is Daily Growing.

New York, June 22.—By the use of dynamite and heavy guns fired by men from the Second battery, scores of bodies of the victims of the Slocum disaster have been brought up from the bottom around the shores near North Brother Island. From sunrise to sunset yesterday the searchers along the beach and in boats gathered in 112, bringing the number of bodies recovered to date up to the appalling total of 845. Of these 700 have been identified, and the missing still are approximated at something more than 300. Many of the bodies last found never will be identified because of the changes that have taken place during the week they have been under the water.

Evidence of a startling nature, which doubtless will have an important bearing on the ultimate result of the coroner's inquiry into the General Slocum disaster, was forthcoming at the inquest. Perhaps the most unexpected incident was the continued refusal to answer questions of Henry Lundberg, a United States steamboat inspector, who was supposed to have inspected the life-preservers and the hull of the ill-fated steamer. His refusal was based on the ground that an answer might tend to incriminate him, and he acted on the advice of his counsel. The coroner committed Lundberg to the house of detention, but later accepted $500 bail for his further appearance.

Will Make It Unanimous.

Chicago, June 22.—The Indiana delegation made a tour of the different state delegations last night and created considerable interest, although no direct attempt was made to boom the nomination of Senator Fairbanks for vice president. There is a practically unanimous belief that the Indiana senator is to be chosen, although there are no new developments in the situation today. There has been some communication with Representative Hitt and he has been informed of the situation. It is expected he will authorize the withdrawal of his name, in which event the other candidates will also be withdrawn and the nomination of Senator Fairbanks be made unanimous.

The healthy

woman need not fear the change which comes at the beginning of life's autumn. It is the woman who is worn out, run down and a sufferer from womanly diseases who naturally dreads the change of life. This is the critical period of the woman's life, and the prevalence of womanly diseases makes it the duty of every woman who would avoid unnecessary suffering to take special care of herself at this time.

The pills which vex so many women at the change of life are entirely avoided or cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong, and enables the weakest to pass through this trying change with the tranquility of perfect health.

"I have been a very healthy woman, and this time has been very hard with me," writes Mrs. Maggie Morris, of Munson Station, Clearfield Co., Pa., Box 16. "I am come to the time of change of life, and I have been sick a great deal of and on. When Mrs. Hemmis moved beside me I was sick in bed, and when she came to see me and we were talking over our sickness, Mrs. Hemmis told me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' also 'Pellies.' I got her to bring me a bottle of each from the drug store and I used them. They did me a great deal of good, and I got two more bottles of 'Favorite Prescription.' I never saw such a wonderful cure. Before I commenced your remedies I was good for nothing; was in such misery I hardly knew what to do with myself, now I can do all my work myself and feel well."

Roosevelt and Fairbanks sounds all right and is all right. This is a ticket that will win. The republicans are in the habit of nominating first class men.

Bryan made it very plain in his New York speech that he is not for Judge Parker and Bryan has a following that has not been reorganized and must be reckoned with.

JAMES GRAY, of Evansville, one of the leading members of the state senate at the last session of the legislature, is dead. Heart disease was the cause of his death.

OVER in Monroe county a bench warrant was issued for the arrest of a township trustee and a road supervisor charging failure to keep in repair a public road. This is a new way to go after such officers for neglect of duty but it will likely prove effective. If this suit is successful the same plan might be tried in other counties.

BECAUSE the Chicago convention is harmonious and because they believe that the St. Louis convention will be anything else but harmonious, the democrats are saying that the republican convention is devoid of enthusiasm. The fact is the republicans are united and will continue that way. That is what troubles democracy. They would like to see strife and turmoil within the ranks of the republican party such as they have in their own party.

Quarantined Again.

The family of George Wheeler where light cases of smallpox appeared a few weeks ago, was quarantined again today. The two young men, Charles and Tony Wheeler are the victims now. When the health officer quarantined the family at first the young men said they were just getting over the disease that their father and mother then had. Believing that what they said was true they were released from quarantine several days ago after the house had been thoroughly disinfected. Their cases are not serious but it will be several days before they will have the permission of the health officer to leave the house again.

Wife Missing.

WASHINGTON, Ind., June 21.—Mrs. Charles Foster, wife of a well known B. & O. S. W. switchman, left home yesterday afternoon and on returning from work her husband found a note saying she was tired of living with him and had gone away. The couple boarded with the husband's mother at a hotel, where several other railroad men live. One of them, a brakeman, who often seemed attentive to Mrs. Foster, is missing. Foster and his friends think they have eloped, but friends of the young man think he is visiting relatives in another city.

DIED.

ENGLEKING.—Mrs. Henry Engleking, aged 31 years, died at her home on East Second st. Monday evening. She had been in declining health for four months. She and her husband moved here with their family of five children from Redding township a few months ago. She was a daughter of Nimrod Metteret of Fleming. The funeral and burial Wednesday forenoon at Reddingtown.

LAMB.—John Lamb, one of the most prominent colored residents of Seymour, died Tuesday night about 12 o'clock. He had been sick several months. Mr. Lamb was about 67 years of age and had been a resident of this city many years. For several years he had charge of the spunking wagon. The funeral will be from the A. M. E. church Friday afternoon.

UNCLE JOE CANSON

PERMANENT CHAIRMAN

Second Session of the Chicago Convention

Special to the Republican.

CHICAGO, ILL., June 22.—The republican convention was called to order today at 12:18 by temporary Chairman Root.

Senator Fairbanks, who will likely be nominated for vice-president, received a great ovation when he entered the hall.

Senators DePew and Platt entered the hall arm in arm and were loudly applauded. Other convention leaders were cheered as they appeared.

Prayer was offered by Rev. Thomas E. Cox of Chicago.

The committee on credentials made its report concurring unanimously with the national committee as to the Wisconsin controversy.

The committee on permanent organization, making Speaker Jos. G. Cannon, of Illinois, permanent chairman of the convention was adopted. "Uncle Joe" took the chair amid great applause.

A 2:03 Chairman Cannon concluded his speech which was tremendously applauded. A motion was made to give the Hawaiian delegation six votes instead of two which aroused a spirited debate in which Senator Foraker and Congressman Hopkins and Baucok took part. A roll call was ordered on the motion.

The Bingham amendment restricting the Hawaiian representation in the present convention to two votes, but seating the six elected delegates, was adopted by a vote of 497 to 490.

At 3:27 Senator Lodge, chairman of the committee on resolutions, was reading the platform.

A telegram from Washington reading: Secretary Hay has wired Consul Montgomery at Morocco—"We want Pericardis alive or Rasuli dead," was read by the clerk and called forth tremendous applause.

Report of the committee on resolutions adopted.

Convention adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow.

The belief prevails that the ticket will be Roosevelt and Fairbanks. Nominations will be made tomorrow.

In Memoriam.

By the death of our worthy brother, Thomas M. Kelso, we are again reminded of the uncertainty of life, and that man, in his full strength of mature manhood, may be called hence; his labors here having come to an unexpected ending. Brother Kelso was esteemed as an upright man, and his true worth was best known by those most intimately associated with him. He was a faithful Odd Fellow and a loving husband and father. Therefore BE IT RESOLVED, That by the death of Brother Thomas M. Kelso, Seymour Lodge, No. 204, I. O. O. F. has lost a worthy and respected brother, and the community in which he lived a valued citizen. That we extend to the widow and family of our deceased brother the sincere sympathy of this lodge in this hour of sudden and unexpected bereavement, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, a copy be spread upon the minutes of Seymour Lodge, I. ### In the South.

The REPUBLICAN has a brief letter from W. D. Bohall, written at Memphis, Tenn. He says that the southern people speak very kindly of the late President McKinley now that he is dead. His observation is that the southern democracy means to make the negro question their chief opposition to Roosevelt. He says that if the colored men were free to vote the republicans would be in the majority in that, Shelby county. Mr. Bohall says that when he wrote, a confederate reunion was in progress at Nashville and that the stars and bars floated there just as the stars and stripes do here. Mr. Bohall said he would leave Memphis for Oklahoma in a day or two.

Many People Think More Of Their Money

Than they do of their eyes and continue to buy lenses that are a daily injury to them. They never know what good vision is, are unable to recognize people across the street, and as long as they are youthful enough, as long as nature and extra innervations of nerve force can be called upon, they concentrate all of their powers in the effort to see and what is the result? Headaches, so called neuralgia, inflamed eyes and the most uncomfortable vision possible, which means a constant strain on the entire nervous system. Later in life, after the accommodative powers are worn out, commencing about the fortieth year period, they are absolutely helpless and the chances are that a majority of such people today think they see as well as those who have good eyes. Don't deceive yourself. You can have your eyes examined free, by capable conscientious people, and have your lenses fitted on an absolute guarantee that they will be comfortable and right or your money back. It's time to forget about the tallow candle methods of picking up pair of "specs" already made and have sore watering eyes all the rest of your days. Mr. and Mrs. Marsh, Optometrists, 74 N. Chestnut street.

Each cone of wire has its individual point of support on a patented cross-wire foundation. The smaller end of the spiral being rigidly connected to two cross-wires in such a manner that the coil cannot be depressed below these supports, or twisted to one side or the other.

This insures a uniform level mattress surface. Also, as the separate springs cannot touch each other or the various coils of each spring rub together when compressed, there is absolute freedom from noise.

Do not buy any other springs until you see these, and do not buy these until you find that they are all we say. Guaranteed for five full years.

RHEUMATISM

AN INDESCRIBABLE TORTURE

Because Rheumatism sometimes comes on suddenly it doesn't prove that it is a chance disease or one due to accidental causes. It takes time for it to develop, and is at work in the system long before any symptoms are felt. The blood is the first point of attack, and the poisonous acids that cause the aches and pains are then distributed through the circulation to different parts of the system, and settle in joints, muscles and nerves; and when the system is in this condition it needs only some exciting cause like exposure to night air, damp, chilly weather, or the cold, bleak winds of winter, to arouse the slumbering poisons and bring on Rheumatism. The severity of the attack depends upon the amount of acid in the blood and the quantity of acrid matter in the joints and muscles. Some people are almost helpless from the first, while others have occasional spells or are uncomfortable, restless, nervous and half sick all the time from the nagging aches and pains. Rheumatism is a disagreeable companion even in its mildest form. It grows worse as we grow older, and frequently stiffens the joints, draws the muscles out of shape and breaks down the nervous system. A disease that originates in the blood, as Rheumatism does, cannot be cured with external remedies like liniments and plasters; such things scatter the pains or drive them to some other part of the body, but do not touch the disease or improve the condition of the blood. The thin acid blood must be restored to its normal purity and strength, so that all poisonous substances may be carried out of the system, and no medicine accomplishes this in so short a time as S.S.S., which not only neutralizes the acids and counteracts the poisons, but builds up the general health at the same time.

Write for our special book on Rheumatism, and should you desire any special information or advice, our physicians will furnish it without charge.

"BEAUTIFUL WINONA."

Excursions via Pennsylvania Lines to that Pretty Resort.

With the opening of the season at Winona Lake, May 10th, the sale of excursion tickets over the Pennsylvania Lines to that attractive resort in Northern Indiana will begin.
Every summer passed there by thousands has only increased their desire to return. On the golf links, the tennis courts, the baseball or cricket grounds, the croquet field, or boating on the lake, fishing, camping, swimming, driving, or attending recitals and lectures by world-famed personages in the auditorium—whatever the diversion may be, the associations are of that congenial sort conferred by good society. This resort is noted as the site of Winona Assembly and Summer School, attracting teachers and students from educational institutions of this and other countries.

Fifteen-day and season excursion tickets will be sold from ticket stations on the Pennsylvania Lines during the summer. For information about fares and times of trains, apply to local ticket agents, or to F. Van Jusen, Chief Assistant General Passenger Agent, Pittsburgh, Pa. Illustrated literature describing attractions of Winona Lake may be had for the asking. Address S. C. Dickey, Secretary and General Manager, Winona Lake, Ind., who will give particulars regarding camping facilities, hotel accommodations, program of addresses by noted speakers and all other details.

CAUSE FOR GRATIFICATION

Senator Fairbanks' New Honor Comes Without Solicitation.

Indianapolis, June 22.—A gratifying feature of the vice presidential situation, as the Indiana friends of Senator Fairbanks see it, is that the nomination comes without any pledges having been made by the senator. Neither have he pledged entered into the situation. It was just a plain case of the convention wanting a certain man and determined to have him. It was the knowledge that this kind of sentiment existed that led some of the scheming leaders here and there in big states to abandon without parlay their maneuvering for political advantages as a result of the nomination. Senator Fairbanks is by all odds the most sought after man at Chicago according to veracious report. Since his nomination became a certainty the hotel crowds have hovered about the entrance to his room to get a look at him and whenever he appears in the lobby he is at once the center of everybody within range. It is exceedingly gratifying to the friends of the senator that he is coming to Indiana to see the nomination coming to him as a free-will offering. Neither he nor his friends have turned a hand toward getting the nomination after going to the convention. A man with less firmness in his makeup would probably have been persuaded to say something under the circumstances. The most influential men in the party went to the senator and declared that he need not expect any consideration from the convention unless he "came out" and said he was a candidate. "Such an announcement would not be the truth," said the senator in answer to these friends. "I am not a candidate, and never sought the vice presidency. I do not propose to seek it."

Unless he refuses to be a candidate, it is the belief of leading prohibition-ists that General Nelson A. Miles will be nominated for the presidency at the Prohibition national convention in Indianapolis next week. Photographs of the general are being prepared in the East for use at the convention, and copies are being circulated of the resolution endorsing General Miles, adopted at the recent Pennsylvania Prohibition state convention.

LIEUTENANT GENERAL NELSON A. MILES.

Dr. J. N. Hurty, secretary of the state board of health, cites the latest insurance statistics to show that 25 per cent of the people recovering from typhoid are within a few years attacked by tuberculosis, which dis-proves the old theory that after a person has recovered from typhoid fever he is usually in better health than he was before he had the disease. The statistics also afford another reason for the utmost vigilance and effort on the part of state and municipal authorities to prevent typhoid. The question of the prevention of consumption will be discussed more than any other at the school for health officers, which convenes Thursday and which will be conducted by the state board of health.

Word from Chicago declares that outside the Chicago coliseum it looks more like an Indiana state convention than it does like a national convention.
Whenever a big crowd enters the hotel it is safe to estimate that the larger part is from Indiana, and there are enough members and ex-members of the Indiana legislature there to hold several sessions of the general assembly and not have the same men attend more than one convention. While most of the state headquarters are almost deserted the greater part of the time, Indiana's headquarters are always crowded, it is said.

The report of the death of State Senator James Gray was a great shock to his many political friends here.
While many of them knew of the senator's failing health few had any idea that his death was so near, and when the news spread about the hotels that he was dead there was universal regret expressed. Senator Gray had a host of warm friends and admirers all over Indiana, and his work in the last session made him popular not only with the politicians, but with the people.

Accidental Death Is Reported.
Crawfordsville, Ind., June 22.—Coroner Keegan changed his mind and brought in a verdict of accidental death in the case of Charles Kahler, the Purdue graduate, who was killed by a live wire at the sub-station of the Northwestern Traction company. The friends of Kahler contend that he was killed accidentally while endeavoring to employ the wires for the production of light.

Revolution Imminent.
A sure sign of approaching revolt and serious trouble in your system is nervousness, sleeplessness, or stomach upset. Electric Bitters will quickly dismember the troublesome causes.
It never fails to tone the stomach, regulate the kidneys and bowels, stimulate the liver, and clarify the blood.
Run down systems benefit particularly and all the usual attending aches vanish under its searching and thorough effectiveness. Electric Bitters is only 50c, and that is returned if it don't give perfect satisfaction. Guaranteed

MOTHERS DON'T SCOLD.

This Information will Prove a Boon to Seymour Mothers.

If a juvenile member of your family lacks control over the kidney secretions at night, do not scold or whip the child. The coating or lining of the bladder is inflamed and the secretions are so full of acid that they irritate that organ and bed wetting is the result. The hundreds of testimonials from every state in the union all declaring children have been cured of this weakness by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills prove at least in their case the remedy did what was promised. I never had a more satisfactory result from medicine. It was such a re-lease from embarrassment to the child and took a large amount of extra work off me. This had been going on for long while and no hint that I could do for her seemed to do any good. As for the price 50 cents per box to me ten dollars a box would have been cheap judging from their merits. The child is perfectly sound as regards the kidneys.
It is four months since I gave them. I can conscientiously recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to mothers."

Labor and Haze Questions Mix.
Gallipolis, Ohio, June 22.—There was a riot at the plant of the J. E.
Mills Lumber company at Crown City, Ohio, between the striking white employees and colored laborers who had taken their places. The negroes were attacked and badly beaten with stones and clubs in the hands of the white men. After two hours of fighting the riot was quelled by Sheriff Manning, who arrested six of the white leaders and lodged them in jail here.

Peace Once More Restored.
Washington, June 22.—Consul General Maxwell in a cablegram from San Domingo informs the state department that Morales was elected president by congress and Caceres vice president, and that the inauguration took place on Sunday. He added that the revolution was ended.

Deadly Gasoline Explosion.
Lawrenceburg, Ind., June 22.—As the result of an explosion of a gasoline tank, George E. Marlett, operator at Lawrenceburg station, is dead.

Dangers of Baseball.
Indiana, Pa., June 22.—During a game of baseball between the Johnstown amateurs and the Indiana Normals, George Thomas, catcher for the Johnstons, was almost instantly killed by being hit over the heart by a foul tip.

"BALDY" MONSON'S SCALP.

How It Was Won by "Lucky" Baldwin in a Faro Game.

"During the time that gambling was in its glory on the Pacific coast," said an old Californian, "Lucky" Baldwin was easily the most daring game taker of all the notable gamblers. Baldwin did some amazing stunts in that day of all day and all night drinking, when overmellow men, most of them with riches so suddenly acquired that they hadn't had time to stop and figure on how much they possessed, tried to outvie one another in the capers they cut with the Lady Fortune.

"One night in the late fifties 'Lucky' as he was then called, walked into the famous old Alcatraz club on Kearney street in San Francisco after having been religiously shunning his bed for about three days and nights running—and in that shape 'Lucky' was, in those days, ready for anything.

"A famous dealer in the Alcatraz club—the biggest gambling establishment on the coast at the time—was 'Baldy' Monson, so called because his poll was bare of hair as a pat of butter. except for a tiny patch that remained right on the crown of his head. It had been a cowlick, and with consistent stubbornness, it had refused to go when the rest of 'Baldy's' hair had departed.
'Baldwin' strolled over to where 'Baldy' Monson was acting as lookout for the Faro game, preparatory to taking hold of the box himself, and drawing Monson's head down 'Lucky' began to count the hairs that the dealer had left on the top of his head.

"How many have you got left?
Baldwin asked of Monson.
'Eighteen, eh? You an inch or more long, the last time they were counted,' sensibly replied 'Baldy.' 'There may be some trifling short ones besides in the tuft, but they don't figure.'
'Eighteen, eh?' said 'Lucky.' 'Well, it's just foolishness to be packing around only eighteen hairs. Turn me the king, open, for $18,000, and if I win your eighteen hairs go with the pot-low's that?'

"'Baldy' glanced inquiringly at the proprietor of the club, who was standing by, and his employer gave him the nod. Monson took the dealer's chair and began the deal. The king won down near the middle of the box, and the proprietor of the club scribbled a check for $18,000 on the Bank of California and handed it over to Baldwin.
'Lucky' snipped the eighteen hairs off 'Baldy' Monson's head with a razor edged blade of his pocketknife, had the housekeeper at his hotel tie them up in tiny pink ribbon, and exhibited the tuft in the window of the Bella Union, labeled 'Baldy Monson's Scalp.'—Washington Post.

TOWN IS AROUSED

Liberty Will Make Strenu-

Burglary.

AN ORGANIZED GANG

It Is Believed That Systematic Housebreaking Is Going On In Quiet Town.

Bloodhounds Have Been Called Into Requisition—Four Suspects Arrested.

Liberty, Ind., June 22.—Several business houses were forcibly entered here and goods of different values were taken. About midnight, while a member of the gang was prowling in the vicinity of the postoffice, the postmaster shot at him. This aroused everybody in the vicinity, and the robbers decamped. Telegrams were sent in every direction looking to the capture of the gang, who were known to be strangers, and a dispatch was received from Hamilton, Ohio, saying that J.
W. Donley, Alexander Chapman, Frank Simpson and John Gore, found beating their way on a C. H. & D. freight train, had been arrested by the police authorities. Before notice of this arrest had been received the sheriff telegraphed for bloodhounds, and Dayton, Ohio, responded. A determined effort will be made to arrest the housebreakers operating in this city and vicinity.

WEEKLY CROP BULLETIN

Summary for Indiana for the Week Ending Monday, June 20.

Indianapolis, June 22.—The daily mean temperature during the last week was with one exception below the normal every day, and for the week averaged 3 deg. below. Light to copious showers fell generally on Wednesday and Thursday and again on Saturday night and Sunday. Fair and for the most part sunny weather prevailed during the intervening period.

Owing to the continued low night temperatures corn is making slow growth, but with few exceptions maintains a healthy color. Early planted corn has been cultivated once or twice and is generally clean; but the last planted is too small to cultivate and is becoming foul. Oats are doing well, but in the south section are beginning to head on short straw. The condition of wheat has improved slightly, but with the exception of that in a few localities the prospects for anything like a fair crop are not good.

Old clover is weedy and unpromising. Young clover, timothy and other hay and pasture grasses continue in good condition. A good crop of alfalfa has been secured in Dearborn county, and clover haymaking is under way in several localities in the south section.
Tomatoes, sugar corn, potatoes and fruit gardens are doing well. Apple trees and pear trees are suffering from blight, and the fruit is falling badly in many localities. Other fruit, except peaches, promising.

Surprised the Court.

Kokomo, Ind., June 22.—John Bowen, charged with dynamiting the home of Aaron Shock in the country west of here last September, surprised the court by entering the plea of guilty and taking the minimum penalty for arson, one year's imprisonment. He admitted that he assisted Samuel Michaels in destroying the Shock home, and that he was paid for his services. Mich-aels, who is sixty-five years old, is serving a term in the Michigan city prison for the part he played in the crime.

Victim May Not Recover.

Anderson, Ind., June 22.—William H. Bolt of Lapel is under bond on charge of attempting to murder Noah C. Branson, timber buyer and box manufacturer at Lapel. It is alleged that Bolt struck Branson because he thought that Branson had complained to the town marshal in effect that Bolt had smuggled several cases of beer into the town. Branson is allied with the temperance element. He is between fifty and sixty years old, and it is feared that he cannot recover.

Holding Secret Sessions.

Warsaw, Ind., June 22.—The Young People's Missionary Movement of the United States is holding a ten days' meeting at Winona lake, with headquarters at the Winona hotel. About one hundred persons, thoroughly interested in the missionary work, are in attendance and the meetings are growing in interest. All of the meetings are for members of the organization only, and no outsiders are permitted to attend. The delegates refuse to discuss the meetings.

Notified the Sheriff.

Fort Wayne, Ind., June 22.—Henry Starks, a Toledo boy who pushed Richard Harris, a negro boy, into the Maumee river at Toledo Sunday, where he drowned, is at Abolite station.
In this county, and he has telephoned Sheriff Stout to come and take charge of him.

Uses Track as Playground.

Fort Wayne, Ind., June 22.—While at play on the tracks of the Nickel Plate railroad in the eastern part of this city last night, little William Keu-ter, eight years old, was struck by a passenger train and fatally injured.
